CONCACAF Names Award Winners for 2013-14 Champions League

TOLUCA, Mexico (Wednesday, April 23, 2014) - The Confederation of North, Central America and Caribbean Association Football (CONCACAF) announced this evening award winners in four 2013-14 CONCACAF Champions League categories after Cruz Azul captured the title on the away-goals rule over Toluca.

The second leg at the Estadio Nemesio Diez ended in a 1-1 draw, following a scoreless stalemate in the opener on April 15 in Mexico City. Mariano Pavone's first-half goal proved to be the difference for Cruz Azul, which won a record-breaking sixth CONCACAF club championship and its first since 1997.

2013-14 CONCACAF CHAMPIONS LEAGUE AWARDS

Golden Ball

Mariano Pavone (Cruz Azul) won the Golden Ball as the competition's best player. The Argentine appeared in eight games and scored five goals, including three in a 5-1 quarterfinal win over visiting Sporting Kansas City on March 19.

Golden Boot

Raul Nava (Toluca) won the Golden Boot as the tournament's top scorer with seven goals. He netted in each of the Red Devils' first five games.

Golden Glove

Alfredo Talavera (Toluca) was the Golden Glove winner as the CCL's best goalkeeper. The 31-year-old Mexico international appeared in nine games and allowed seven goals.

Fair Play Award

The LA Galaxy won the Fair Play Award for acquiring the least amount of yellow and red cards in the Championship Round.
